

4
AND TIMES HERALD

MAY 15 1966

Press Club To Honor 8 At Banquet

The Capital Press Club will present its 1966 distinguished service awards to Thurgood Marshall, Solicitor General of the United States, and Andrew F. Brimmer, member of the Board of Governors, at its 23rd Annual Awards Banquet on June 4.

John W. Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, will be the main speaker at the awards dinner at the International Inn.

Journalism award winners announced by club president Jesse W. Lewis Jr. yesterday are Jules Feiffer, cartoonist; Edward P. Morgan, ABC newscaster, and Carl Murphy, chairman of the Afro-American Newspapers.

The Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy, Washington civil rights leader, Maryland State Sen. Verda F. Welcome and A. T. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co., will also be honored.

The Capital Press Club banquet is held each year to finance scholarships for Negro journalism students.